

ITALY LOCAL LIVING

JUNE 13-19, 2027

Get a taste for Italian life on this one-week trip to Sorrento, located just around the corner from the Amalfi Coast. Replete with gorgeous scenery and all the fantastic food and drink you'd expect, you'll unwind on an organic lemon farm and learn how the famous limoncello liquor is made. With a local family as your hosts, you'll get an in-depth look at what life at an Italian agriturismo is like. Walk along the stunning coastline and enjoy a stop at Pompeii. Don't be a tourist in Italy — live the dream.

DATE	ITINERARY & IMPORTANT NOTES
Day 1 June 13	Naples Arrive at any time.
Day 2 June 14	Naples/Sorrento Start the day with a Migrant tour of Naples. Transfer to Sorrento and your home for the week, an organic lemon farm. Enjoy a guided tour of Pompeii en route. Accommodation: Agriturismo Giardini di Vigliano (or similar)
Day 3 June 15	Sorrento Tour the agriturismo's lemon groves then enjoy free time to fill however you wish. There is plenty to see and do; now is your time to explore. Either relax and take in the stunning scenery or opt to take part in a pizza making demonstration.
Day 4 June 16	Sorrento/Postiano Set off from the agriturismo to Bomerano and follow the path along the Amalfi Coast with sensational views of lemon groves, gorges, deep valleys, woodland, abandoned farmhouses, and the sea below. Stop in the towns of Montepertuso and Positano, where there is more to explore. Note that hikes are accessible for all travellers, but there can be sections that are more strenuous and challenging due to terrain. Please ensure you have proper closed-toe hiking footwear. Explore the shops and narrow streets of beautiful Positano. Climb aboard and get your float back to Sorrento. Limoncello Making Demonstration - Learn all about limoncello production (and tasting!) at a local limoncello factory. Southern Italy is known specifically for the giant lemons they use to make limoncello. These lemons can easily grow to be larger than one's head; see them in person today.
Day 5 June 17	Sorrento Enjoy a free day to do as you please. Opt to visit local villages, explore Sorrento, sign up for a full-day cooking class, or to spend some time on the beach.
Day 6 June 18	Sorrento Enjoy some down time to explore the area or just kick back and relax at the agriturismo. Today is a free day for you to enjoy more sites of your choice along the Coast.
Day 7 June 19	Sorrento/Naples Transfer to the Naples train station in the morning where the tour ends upon arrival. Flights can depart no earlier than 2pm.
